Be "Chesty"

and you'll be right in it this Spring, for fashion ordains that coats be cut with measurable fullness across the chest.

The model portrayed here is one of which we're uncommonly proud, for it's an exact reproduction of a design sponsored by a New York tailor famous alike for his marked style and his fabulous prices. This coat has three buttons and the lapels are tolerably wide and long.

Distinctly a style of now, of the times, yes—of the moment.

The bay mare Winona, which furnished much political capital for the Democrats in the recent city election, was fed back to the city stable Friday afternoon, after having enjoyed the hospitality of John W. Anderson's farm at the Meadows since last February. As a servant of the city Winona was considered by the last city government to have seen her best days, and the question of her disposal was brought up in the board of aldermen. It developed that an offer of $10 had been made for the mare, but fearing that she might not receive the care that her age and infirmity demanded, the aldermen finally voted to give the animal to John W. Anderson, who came under bond, not only to treat Winona humanely, but to see that the horse had a decent burial when her earthly cares were over. When the general public learned that the aldermen had given away something it did not need much spurting on by the Opinion, and the Democratic leaders, to raise a row. The value of Winona under the new conditions appreciated astonishingly, and some citizens suddenly discovered that they would have paid a large sum for the mare. The horse issue, rightly or wrongly, according to individual views in the matter, caused the loss of many votes to the party in power and earned many for the Democrats who pledged themselves to see that the horse was returned. At a meeting of the city council two weeks ago it was voted to serve a formal notice upon Mr. Anderson to that effect, and this was done by City Solicitor Payson. Mr. Anderson called at the solicitor's office and discussed the matter informally, but when the 16 days expired the mare still remained in his stable. Armed with a writ of replevin, Deputy Sheriff White visited Mr. Anderson's home Friday afternoon and asked that the horse be given into his custody. Deputy White claims that he was abused and insulted in the discharge of his duty, while Mr. Anderson claims that the deputy refused to show the writ when asked to do so, although he did submit the paper when the mare was finally given into his possession. Mr. Anderson immediately consulted counsel and it is understood that the case will be threshed out in supreme court. What is more likely it will go to Law Court on an agreed statement of facts.

There has been an increase in the attendance of the Sunday meetings. A choir has been organized and this will, no doubt, in time be of great help to the meetings. The attendance at the rooms has more than kept even with former years. The moving of the office into the library has made the books more accessible to the members, and as a consequence more books are being drawn this year than for many previous years. The reading room has been kept up to its usual standard and many strangers have there found a warm welcome and good entertainment. The reference library and correspondence table which were added to the reading room are proving of great usefulness both to members and to visitors. Secretary Brunberg made special mention of the gift of $500 received from Mrs. T. Phillips, and $80 from the Ladies' Auxiliary. The total mortgage indebtedness of the Association was reduced thereby to $200. State Secretary J. M. Dugan made a brief address, congratulating the Association on its good work the past year and inviting the Y. M. C. A. workers present to attend the state convention which is to be held in Portland soon. The annual address was preached by Rev. Robert Sutfill, who said he believed a billiard table could be used for a young man's conversion, and that a gymnasium could be used to save a young man from bad habits. The Young Men's Christian Association supplies many young men for the churches. The exercises closed with benediction by Rev. A. H. Hanson of Vinalhaven. The collection netted $17.45.

When the Courier-Gazette went to press this forenoon it had been snowing continuously since 10 o'clock last night. Over five inches of damp snow had fallen, and the weight of it on the wires had wrought more havoc to the electric wire system. Both telegraph companies were without wires and the fire alarm was out of commission. Oh! for the good, old summer time like we had in January and February.

The secretary of the Methebesee Club, who has reported the meetings throughout the winter, makes the following report of the session held last week: A most delightful afternoon was spent last Friday by the Methebesee Club at "Pickwick Place," the handsome new residence of W. O. Fuller, Esq., the occasion being a special meeting for the study of Dickens. No more appropriate place could be found for a mental glimpse of the author, as Mr. Fuller is an enthusiastic admirer and student of Dickens and has many reminders of that famous novelist about his home, photographs of the man looking down from various nooks and corners, while a large collection is to be found in Mr. Fuller's attractive study. The ladies of the club had for some time "great expectations" of this afternoon, as Mr. Fuller had kindly consented to address them upon "The Life and Works of Dickens," which he did in a pleasing and humorous manner. His talk was full of interesting information, made more impressive because the speaker had personal knowledge of his subject which came from a visit to the home and haunts of Dickens while on a tour of England. The afternoon's entertainment was voted one of the most profitable and pleasant of the season and the appreciation of the ladies was heartily expressed to Mr. and Mrs. Fuller for their generous hospitality.

More Strong Values

Past week's business was phenomenal. We believe it was due to Boston Store values alone. Rockland people have long since learned of our qualities. Our splendid New England made foot gear and our unequalled facilities for following the market have enabled us to save you money for nine years. Here's our bid—Read it.

I.

Ample capital, business foresight, together with the largest and most up-to-date shoe manufacturing plant in the world gives you the celebrated W. L. DOUGLAS SHOES FOR MEN at the old prices—$3.00 and $3.50, in all leathers and styles.

II.

To bring new people into our store as well as to show appreciation for old favors, we offer, as long as they last, one lot of Shoes for MEN'S wear, OXFORDS and BALMORALS in Genuine Patent Colt. Vici Kid and Velour Calf at $1.95. Never before sold for less than $2.50.

III.

In all the large cities in the United States it is generally accepted that Par Excellence in Ladies' Foot-gear means the celebrated "Dorothy Dodd" brand as they combine perfection in lasts and patterns, artistic effects in tasty and fetching combinations. Then again you have the knowledge that the price is the same the world over. These are reasons why ladies will carefully examine and consider DOROTHY DODD $3.00 and $2.50 SHOES in making their spring and summer selections.

IV.

UNLINED BOOTS with O'Sullivan Rubber Heels, made of soft leathers and without seams, are becoming more popular each year with ladies who want ease and comfort. These are usually sold through agents at $2.50 and $3.00 a pair. We have secured a lot direct from a reliable source which we will sell at $2.00 A PAIR

SUPREME COURT BEGINS.

Approach of Planting Season Likely to Make April Term Brief—Bishop Man-slaughter Case—Owl's Head Railway.

The April term of supreme court was placed on actual business basis this forenoon. The presiding justice is Judge Henry C. Peabody of Portland, who has been very much in the public eye the past month, as the justice before whom the Cooper murder trial in August was being heard. The Cooper case was not concluded until Saturday, and with but two days rest Judge Peabody enters upon another term of court.

Had the Knox county session begun on schedule time it would have been a very busy term, but it is now near the planting season, and it becomes a matter of great inconvenience for the jurors and many of the witnesses to be cooped up in a court house listening to more or less hot air.

The formalities usually attending the opening of a supreme court session were dispensed with this morning, the work of organizing and the calling of the docket had been attended to in the one day session held by Judge William P. Whitehouse while Judge Peabody was busy at Augustus. Many new cases were entered and there is a large assigned list, but it is doubtful if there are more than one or two civil trials in this belated term.
